Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 07: (Guest House because there is no hotel) Trek from Diraphuk to Zuthulphuk (22 km; about 9 - 10 hrs)

You can start your morning with a stunning view of the Mount Kailash. After breakfast, you would be asked to begin your trek uphill towards Zuthulphuk. As a forewarning, we must tell you that this trek is not going to be an easy one, so please prepare yourself both physically and mentally. But if you bear in mind that this is a pilgrimage of a lifetime, you can successfully undertake it. Trekking under the Holy Mount Kailash, you will reach the Drolma La pass (5800 m), which is the highest point of the trek to Mount Kailash. This trek is going to be a little rocky and steep, so you must be in a fit condition. From the Drolma La Pass, we will descend towards the gradual undulating field of Zuthulphuk. As you move down, on a clear morning, you will be blessed with the Darshan of Gauri Kunda. The walk becomes pleasant and relaxing from the valley below, with gentle slopes over the grassy fields. At Zuthulphuk, you can relax, soak in the breadth-taking view around you and spend the nippy night at our pleasant guesthouse/camp that would be kept warm for you.

Distance covered: 22 kms

Altitude: 5600m Meals Included:
Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 08: (Hotel Himalayan) Gradual trek to Yam Dwar then

Drive to Darchen. Take your luggage and then Drive to Taklakot (about 3 to 4 hours)

After breakfast, at the guesthouse/camp you would want to while away your morning time in solitude, exploring the caves and visiting the temple and shrines of Zuthulphuk, as per your wishes. An old, married couple supervises the temple here, which houses about half a dozen Tibetan devotees and helpers who maintain the building in a Spartan condition. You will see meditation platforms in the cave that are deeply inviting. It is worthwhile climbing up to these caves before you end your final trek to the holy Kailash Mount. After a 10 km walk (4-5 hours) you will reach your destination of your trek near Darchen. Here you will re-unite
